

Warrington Speak Up

We have two exciting job opportunities to join the team.

Warrington Speak Up provides statutory advocacy, non-statutory advocacy, self-advocacy, and a range of project work and participation and engagement services across Warrington.

Do you want to make a difference in people's lives?

Are you passionate about protecting the rights of some of the most vulnerable people in our communities?

Do you believe that people have the right to be treated as an equal citizen, to make informed decisions and to enjoy and live a full life?

We are looking for energetic and passionate advocates to join our team and work together to promote social inclusion, equality and social justice, strengthening the voice of Warrington citizens.
